New Criticism. A literary movement that started in the late 1920s and 1930s and originated in reaction to traditional criticism that new critics saw as largely concerned with matters extraneous to the text, e.g., with the biography or psychology of the author or the work's relationship to literary history.

Dramaturgy is the study of dramatic composition and the representation of the main elements of drama on the stage.. The term first appears in the eponymous work Hamburg Dramaturgy (1767â€“69) by Gotthold Ephraim Lessing. Lessing composed this collection of essays on the principles of drama while working as the world's first dramaturge at the Hamburg National Theatre.

Case studies of previous sociotechnical transitions 5 suggest that niche innovations can break through when their growing internal momentum combines with increasing tensions within the existing sociotechnical system and growing pressures on that system from the external landscape. In combination, these create â€œwindows of opportunityâ€™ for radical change.
